Elvis Presley loved The Blackwood's. Elvis idolized The Blackwood family and wanted to sing with them. Elvis was given that opportunity after the crash that killed RW Blackwood, but Elvis had already signed a contract with Sun Records and was unable to sing with the Blackwood Brothers Quartet. Even though his life took a different turn he never stopped loving Gospel Music or the Blackwood Family. Elvis insisted on the Blackwood Brothers Quartet singing at his mother's funeral. Join the Blackwood Quartet for this once in a lifetime Blessing and experience that will change your life. The Blackwood's are carrying on this great tradition of Gospel Music Celebration!
