TUPELO, MS—LinkFest is a new two-day festival to be produced by Link Centre on June 22-23, 2018. LinkFest will feature musical events, multidisciplinary arts showcases and workshops, and celebrations of delicious cuisine. Held throughout the Link Centre campus, LinkFest will offer a full weekend of arts events and immersion, a unique community opportunity to get to know our many partners and the arts and social services they offer, and an interactive introduction to our facility and its multiple event and work spaces. LinkFest will present activities and opportunities for all ages.

On the schedule:

Friday, June 22, 7:30pm: New Orleans Style Dinner and Dancing with music by Bonfire Orchestra. Tickets $30 at link-centre.org.

Saturday, June 23, 10am to 5pm: Free Campus-Wide Open House
Dozens of FREE Workshops ranging from acting and music to floral arranging and jewelry making to mural painting and kids activities from Healthworks! Food trucks will be on site.

6:30pm: Cocktails and Bites Hour Followed by Double Concert

7:30pm: Music from Breaking Grass and Charmaine Neville and Friends
Tickets $30 at link-centre.org.

Weekend Pass for Friday and Saturday $50 available at link-centre.org.

LinkFest is a fundraiser for Link Centre, a 501(c)(3) multi-tenant nonprofit organization that fosters creative partnerships in the arts and social services for residents of northeast Mississippi. Learn more about Link at link-centre.org or #linkcentretup @linkcentretup
